

Rally-O Workshop with Stella Bagshaw

One day workshop

This workshop is an introduction to the sport of Rally-O (bedience) Dogs with basic training and beyond are welcome to attend the day with their handlers. Places for dog and handlers are limited so book soon to avoid disappointment. Due to the nature of the workshop, it is not suitable for dogs with proactive aggression problems towards people or other dogs. As handlers and dogs may be working in close proximity to each other, safety is of prime concern. If you are unsure whether or not to book a place for your dog, please call Pam Mackinnon to discuss your concerns. Those attending without dogs will be able to watch and learn from both Stella and those attending with dogs.

Where and when?
